

pages 2 and 3 of the specification. Upon further reflection, the Examiner was persuaded that by the combination of these two disclosures, the Applicant had, in fact, enabled a person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to carry out the invention commensurate in scope with these claims. Accordingly, the Examiner agreed to remove her rejection under 35 USC 112, first paragraph, and to allow the claims to issue. The Applicant appreciates the Examiner's cooperation.

Closure

Applicant has made an earnest attempt to place the remaining claims in the above referenced application in condition for allowance and action toward that end is respectfully requested. Should the Examiner have any further observations or comments, he is invited to contact the undersigned for resolution.

Respectfully submitted,
